

Interface Design

Basically, we are following the Agile model and we are having only two modules with respect to interface design which are –

- 1) User interface design which will have a web page for login / Registration and after login Console will open to detect emotion according to facial recognition by image or video.

- 2) Admin Module who will be responsible for creating the playlist or seeing the user data of listening songs.